Meet the Speakers ...

Dr Matthew Fay

Dr Matthew Fay is a General Practitioner at the Westcliffe Group of practices and is now based at The Willows in Queensbury, Bradford.

In 2001 he established a GPwSI cardiology service in North Bradford which has expanded to provide services in Ilkley and Queensbury. He was a member of the NICE AF Guideline Development Group and is a standing committee member of NICE Quality Standard Advisory Committee.

Among his other roles: he is currently executive of Arrhythmia Alliance, a medical advisor to STARS (the Syncope Trust), Anticoagulation Europe, on the Expert Advisory Panel for the Stroke Association, the Faculty for Heart Valve Voice and a Trustee of AF Association and Thrombosis UK.

Professor Ahmet Fuat

Professor Ahmet Fuat has been in general practice in Darlington since 1986. As well as being a GP appraiser and CCG cardiology lead, he also works as a GP specialist in cardiology and for 14 years has run an integrated heart failure service across primary and secondary care. Holding a PhD from Durham University, he is an active researcher in cardiology and recently he was awarded an honorary chair in Primary Care Cardiology from Durham University School of Health, Medicine and Pharmacy.

Professor Fuat sits on the editorial boards of both the BJC and PCCJ, and is an active member of the BCS. He is a tutor on the Bradford postgraduate diploma in cardiology course and chairs and lectures in cardiology nationally. He has served on the NICE and ESC guideline development groups on Heart failure and Myocardial Infarction respectively. He has published widely on Heart Failure, Atrial Fibrillation and Ischaemic Heart Disease.

Professor Fuat has been instrumental in setting up the CVGP (Society for health professionals with an interest in cardiovascular medicine in general practice). He is currently President of the CVGP CIC.
