Meet the Speakers ...

Dr Shabneet Kaur Chadha

I am a GP working in Enfield & Haringey. I have an interest in women's health, delivering contraception services including fitting coils and implants.

I have been teaching on Sexual health/HIV and contraception courses to GPs and Practices Nurses run by MEDFASH/SHIP in various parts of London.

I have been involved in a pilot in a Public Health funded pilot in Haringey to improve patient access to services by training pharmacists to provide basic sexual health services including POCT HIV testing.

I have also recently designed and delivered sexual health & contraception teaching to school nurses and health visitors in Enfield.

I also facilitate on the women's health workshops for the 4th year medical students at RFUCL medical school.

Dr Alun Cooper

Dr Cooper has been a full time GP in Crawley, West Sussex since 1984, but semi-retired in 2014. Since then, he works as a GP two days a week and one day a week working on osteoporosis and fragility fractures.

He is the Clinical Lead for the local Fracture Liaison Service, which is based in Primary Care. The service provides care for a population of 120,000 but is currently in discussion to expand to cover a 770,000 population.

Alun, in the past, has been a Trustee of the National Osteoporosis Society and is currently a member of the National Osteoporosis Guideline Group.
