Your Learning Agenda ...

Building a “one team” approach

This webinar has been designed for those who manage a team and would like to build the team to enable them to work collaboratively by understanding and using individual strengths, being inclusive by respecting difference and recognise the value of timely and appropriate communication. The session will also help you to consider approaches to recognising what helps and hinders team motivation.

The session will include:

- ▶ The ‘psychological contract’ and how to build it.
- ▶ How to manage according to the needs and diversity of your team
Building and consolidating your teams strengths
- ▶ Recognising the factors affecting motivation in your team
- ▶ Exploring strategies to enhance team communication
- ▶ Developing and working towards team goals
- ▶ Understanding why people underperform and how you can help (or hinder!)
