Meet the Speakers ...

Dr Farah Chaudry

I returned home to Yorkshire, having studied in Cambridge and completing my training in London. I worked as a GP in Leeds for 10 years, with an interest in Women's Health, which subsequently evolved into a full-time career in SRH. I have had a varied career and spent last year working as Consultant SRH at Salford Royal. I am now working in Yorkshire full-time, as Contraceptive lead for Bradford and Kirklees Sexual Health services. I do not miss the M62 one bit!

Throughout my practice I have maintained an interest and passion for training and development. I am Joint Faculty Regional Training Advisor for Yorkshire & Humber for the FSRH, General Training Programme Director, MFSRH Examiner and SAS Tutor.

I am a busy parent to 3 lovely daughters who are a constant reminder of the important things in life.

Dr Sangeeta Naraen

Consultant Orthogeriatrician and special interest in Metabolic Disease
Aintree University Hospitals, Liverpool.

MRCP I June 2008

MRCP geriatric March 2011

I started working in UK in February 2000 and had my training in Mersey and West Yorkshire. I developed my interest in Orth geriatric and metabolic bone disease while my training in Yorkshire and did talks on these topic multiple times

I run a metabolic bone clinic at Aintree University Hospital and look after Fragility fracture

I have written chapters in book to help manage elderly patient in community.

Since being Consultant in January 2014 I am involved in developing services around fragility fracture and its management

I have published multiple abstract in World Congress for osteoporosis and osteoarthritis regarding fragility fracture.

I am involve in training doctors in fragility fracture and have regular speaker to GPs and colleagues to update the treatment of fragility fracture.
